Former Staff Member Rejoins Children's Advocacy Center of Brevard

Melbourne, Fla.—Charles Biehl, Director, Child Protection Team/Children's Advocacy Center of Brevard (CACB) has announced that Teresa Munroe is once again a member of the Children's Advocacy Center of Brevard staff and is responsible for communications and development. "We are fortunate to have Teresa rejoin our team. She will be a valuable asset and significantly impact our ability to address future challenges here at CACB as she brings a wealth of experience, knowledge, and skill to the position," explained Biehl.

Munroe will be responsible for increasing awareness about and enlisting support for the work of the Children's Advocacy Center. "Her past experience has prepared her well for this position," said Biehl. "In addition to the CACB, Munroe has also worked for Leadership Brevard/Brevard Tomorrow (now LEAD Brevard), United Way of Brevard, Wuesthoff Health System Foundation and McDonnell Douglas Space Systems. She has extensive expertise in the areas of Public and Community Relations, Planning, Program and Volunteer Management, and Resource Development." Munroe holds a bachelor's degree in Communications and a master's degree in Public Administration.

Established in 1996, the Children's Advocacy Center of Brevard unites child protection professionals from multiple agencies under one roof in a child-friendly environment to intervene in the most severe cases of child abuse in Brevard County. Children's Advocacy Center group tours are available by appointment by calling Teresa Munroe at 259-1883. CACB is a nonprofit organization affiliated with Wuesthoff Health Services.
