

Biography

Terri Williamson, M.A., LMHC
Licensed Mental Health Counselor
Clinical Intervention Program
Children's Advocacy Center of Brevard

Terri Williamson is originally from Jacksonville, Florida. She graduated from UCF with a Bachelor's degree in business management (minor in psychology), and then Rollins College in 1995 with a Master's degree in psychology. She has 16 years experience working with children and families with issues of abuse.

Ms. Williamson has been with CAC/CPT since 1999, initially as a Case Coordinator with CPT and currently as a therapist with the CAC Clinical Intervention Program.

Prior to joining CPT, she was employed by Children's Home Society for five years as a therapist with the Family Builders Program. As a Family Builders therapist, Ms. Williamson worked with children who were at imminent risk of removal from their caregivers due to allegations of abuse.

In addition to being a part-time therapist with CIP, she has a private practice in Rockledge.
